Schedule 13

The holders of Series D Preference Shares shall bear the following rights and obligations as set out in the Constitution to be adopted by the Company on or prior to conversion of the Notes into Series D Preference Shares in the capital of the Company:

"4C. RIGHTS ATTACHING TO SERIES D PREFERENCE SHARES

(A) The Company may allot and issue the Series D Preference Shares, at such issue price and on such terms and conditions as the Directors may determine, which shall carry the following rights, benefits and privileges and be subject to the following restrictions and such other rights, benefits, privileges and restrictions as stated in these Articles:

(1) REDEMPTION

(a) Any holder of Series D Preference Shares may, at any time after the fifth (5th) anniversary of the date of issue of the Series D Preference Shares require the Company to redeem its outstanding Series D Preference Shares by written notice to the Company (the "Redemption Notice"). Subject to the terms of this Article 4C(A)(1), such holder of Series D Preference Shares shall be entitled to receive an amount equal to the aggregate of: (i) the aggregate subscription price of such Series D Preference Shares plus a 10 per cent. per annum return on such aggregate subscription price, and (ii) all accrued but unpaid dividends thereon through the date of redemption (the "Series D Redemption Amount") five (5) Business Days after the date of the Redemption Notice (the "Series D Redemption Date").

(b) The Series D Preference Shares shall be redeemed in accordance with the following procedure:

(i) Any holder of Series D Preference Shares may submit a Redemption Notice independently of any other holders.

(ii) Subject only to applicable laws, the Company shall forthwith upon the receipt of any Redemption Notice send to all holders of Series D Preference Shares a written notice stating its receipt of an Redemption Notice, including such other particulars relating to the name of the holder of Series D Preference Shares who had submitted the Redemption Notice, the Series D Redemption Date and the number of Series D Preference Shares being redeemed pursuant thereto. In the event that there is only one holder of Series D Preference Shares, the Company shall not be obliged to send any further notice hereunder.

PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL - 2016EVTCT
PROPERTY OF EAST VENTURES TECHCENTRE INC.

(iii) No other class or series of shares in the Company may be redeemed in preference or in priority to the Series D Preference Shares.

(iv) On or before the Series D Redemption Date, the Series D Preference Shareholders who have served a Redemption Notice(s) shall be bound to deliver to the Company at the Office the certificates for such of the Series D Preference Shares as are held by each Series D Preference Shareholder in order that the same may be cancelled or, if any such share certificate has been lost or destroyed in circumstances not giving rise to any alienation of the Series D Preference Shares or any interest therein, deliver to the Company a statutory declaration made by or on behalf of the Series D Preference Shareholder setting out the circumstances of such loss or destruction. Upon such delivery or the Series D Redemption Date (whichever is the later), the Company shall pay (and shall only be obliged to pay) to such Series D Preference Shareholder the relevant Series D Redemption Amount for such Series D Preference Shares.

(v) The failure of a holder to deliver to the Company a certificate for any Series D Preference Shares to be cancelled (or to lodge a statutory declaration in relation to any such certificate which has been lost) shall not prejudice or affect the obligation of the Company to redeem that Series D Preference Share on the Series D Redemption Date but the Company may refrain from paying the Series D Redemption Amount for that Series D Preference Share until that holder has delivered to the Company the relevant share certificate (or, if applicable, the statutory declaration in relation thereto). In such circumstances the Company shall be under no obligation to pay interest on the Series D Redemption Amount for that Series D Preference Share from the Series D Redemption Date to the date of payment and such amount shall be deemed to be an unsecured loan from the holder of that Series D Preference Share to the Company and may be mixed with other moneys of the Company and used for the purposes of its business until the Company becomes obliged to pay such amount pursuant to this Article 4C(A)(1).

(2) DEFAULT IN PAYMENT OR PARTIAL PAYMENT

If by reason of any provision of the Act, the Company is unable to make payment of any amount due in respect of the Series D Preference Shares (whether in respect of the Series D Preference Dividend, or otherwise), then the Company shall from time to time (subject to the maximum amount and extent permitted by law, and on the earliest date on which such payments may lawfully be made) make payments on account of the amount so owing on a pro rata basis until such amount has been paid in full.

(3) VOLUNTARY CONVERSION

Each Series D Preference Shareholder shall have the Series D Conversion Right in relation to his Series D Preference Shares and shall be entitled at any time to exercise the Series D Conversion Right in respect of all or any of its Series D Preference Shares to convert such Series D Preference Shares into Ordinary Shares credited as fully paid at the Series D Conversion Ratio upon and subject to the following terms:

(i) the Series D Conversion Right shall be exercisable by completing a conversion notice (the "Series D Conversion Notice") and delivering the same to the Company no later than seven (7) days prior to the proposed conversion date together with share certificates in respect of such Series D Preference Shares or such other documents or evidence (if any) as the Directors may reasonably require to prove the title and claim of the person exercising such right (or, if such certificates have been lost or destroyed, such evidence of title and such indemnity as the Directors may require). A Series D Conversion Notice once given may not be withdrawn without the consent in writing of the Company;

(ii) upon conversion, such Series D Preference Shares shall be converted into Ordinary Shares credited as fully paid and, from the date of such conversion, which shall be the proposed conversion date set out in the Series D Conversion Notice (the "Series D Conversion Date"). Such Ordinary Shares shall rank pari passu in all respects with the Ordinary Shares then in issue (save for any dividends, rights or other distributions the record date of which is before the Series D Conversion Date);

(iii) if any fractions of Ordinary Shares shall arise on conversion of the Series D Preference Shares, such fractions shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number;

(iv) conversion of such Series D Preference Shares as are due to be converted as aforesaid on the Series D Conversion Date shall be effected in such manner as the Directors shall, subject to these Articles and as the Act or other applicable laws or regulations may allow, from time to time determine, provided always that the Series D Preference Shares shall upon conversion, be cancelled and retired and shall not thereafter be reissued; and

(ii) Appropriate adjustments will be made in the event of any subdivision, consolidation, bonus issue or other distributions of Ordinary Shares or combination of shares or rights issue or other change in capital structure of the Company pursuant to which the Company does not receive any cash or other consideration, such that the Shareholding Percentage of each Series D Preference Shareholder shall remain unchanged following any such event or otherwise in such manner as the Directors think appropriate. For the purposes of this Article, "Shareholding Percentage" shall mean, in respect of each Shareholder and with respect to any time the proportion which the aggregate number of issued and fully paid Ordinary Shares held by such Shareholder (which number, where such Shareholder holds issued and fully paid Preference Shares and/or Notes, shall be deemed for this purpose to include the number of Ordinary Shares into which such Preference Shares and/or Notes may be converted by such Shareholder at the time) bears to the aggregate number of all issued and fully paid Ordinary Shares held by all Shareholders (which shall be deemed for this purpose to include all issued and fully paid Ordinary Shares into which all issued and fully paid Preference Shares and/or Notes may be converted into at the time).
